

UNDOCKED.

The State of Affairs in the Kentucky Situation Has Made No Material Change.

SOLDIERS STILL DOING GUARD DUTY.

Detectives Have Found a Bullet Imbedded in One of the Trees in Capitol Square.

Arguments Heard on the Contests By Judge Taft at Cincinnati, Who Will Announce His Decision Wednesday Afternoon.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 13.—Another day of unbroken calm prevailed in Frankfort. The republican members of the legislature met at noon, and after appointing committees to inform Taylor that the legislature adjourns, the legislature adjourned and calling it to Frankfort, they proceeded to this city, and were prepared to transact such business as might become before them, the governor acknowledged the message, and both houses adjourned. There were nine members in the senate and 25 in the house.

The committee which was expected to come from the democratic members at Louisville to report whether it is safe for them to come to Frankfort did not put in an appearance. The republican leaders say that they expect nothing new to transpire until after Judge Taft, in Cincinnati, has rendered his decision on Wednesday. At one time Taylor decided to order away all of the soldiers now here, with the exception of a few for a personal body guard. He sent for Col. Williams and actually ordered the moving of the troops, but several of his friends urged so strongly that the soldiers be permitted to remain that he changed his intention, and said that for the present at least he would not have any more of them returned to their homes.

The detectives working on the Goebel assassination discovered a bullet imbedded in one of the trees in the south side of the capital square. It struck the tree about 20 inches from the ground, and almost on a line from the executive building and the spot where Goebel fired his shot. A bullet containing the bullet was cut from the tree and is now in the possession of the prosecuting attorney.

PLANS OF THE DEMOCRATS.

An Entirely New Start May Now Be Made to Get the Democratic Cases Into the Courts.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 13.—The efforts of the democratic lawyers are directed toward unsealing places. Naval gun are being used to secure the adjournment of the claims of Taylor and Beckham to the office of governor. It is feared of a clash as long as the republican position is maintained. Judge Taylor believes the injunction suit now pending before Judge Cantrell at Frankfort is useless as far as unsealing the main issue is concerned, because its object was to prevent Taylor from interfering with the legislature or adjournment to Louisville. He must be had, and this will probably be by a suit at law in behalf of Beckham to establish the legality of the action of the legislature in declaring him elected, and to secure possession of the office, or by a petition in equity to restrain Taylor from exercising the duties of the office of governor. It is thought that such a case will be begun before the end of the week.

The democratic committee their efforts to the state courts, their contention being that federal courts have no jurisdiction in the case. The republicans either by opposing the proceedings before Judge Taft will endeavor to get their claims before the federal courts; but their course will depend largely upon that adopted by the democrats.

In both houses of the legislature was introduced a bill offering a reward of $100,000 for the detection of Goebel's murderer.

CONTESTANTS IN COURT.

Arguments Heard for the State Officers Other Than Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

Cincinnati, Feb. 13.—In the United States circuit court of appeals Judge W. H. Taft heard arguments for over three hours on the application for rehearing against the Kentucky state board of election commissioners and the contestants for the state offices other than governor and lieutenant governor.

The large court room was unable to hold all who came to the federal building for admission. Very many of the attorneys were from the Kentucky side, notably the plaintiffs against the state board are citizens of Covington. The republican state officers were also present, but the only one of the defendants in attendance was Judge Foyt, of the state board. There were quite a number present from Frankfort and Louisville.

The plaintiffs were represented by Bradley, Willson, Swearingen and Yost, all of Kentucky. The defendants were represented by Scott, Hendricks, Hager and Maxwell.

After the conclusion of the arguments Judge Taft announced to counsel that he would announce his decision, so far as the court has jurisdiction in the cases are concerned, at 2 p. m. on Wednesday next.

ON TOWARD BLOEMFONTEIN.

Lord Roberts, With 35,000 Men, Proposes To Go To The Relief of Ladysmith.

FIRST STEP TOWARD BLOEMFONTEIN.

Kimberley in Sore Straits, and May Be Compelled to Surrender to the Enemy.

Boers Strongly Entrenched at Magerfontein—Cutting Off the Progress of the British Advance.

London, Feb. 13.—Lord Roberts has gathered 35,000 men, with whom, according to the best military opinion in London, he proposes turning the left of the Magerfontein line near Jacobdahl, entering the Free State, compelling Gen. Cronje to raise the siege of Kimberley, and thus making his first step toward Bloemfontein.

Lord Roberts announced the appointment of Gen. Sir Henry Goltz, British commander of the Ninth division, which is being formed and will consist of a great extent of colonial troops. Gen. Goltz will be succeeded by Gen. Reginald Pole-Carew.

Lord Roberts tells the correspondents that when he gets down to business they shall have ample opportunities to send the news. His chief press censor has issued new rules and in future all written communications are to be unchecked. Only telegrams will be censored. For the next few days the British will be kept through, but later there will be more freedom. Thus says the censor, and the last clause may be interpreted to mean that something is about to happen.

Kimberley, 20 miles away from the Modder river position, is in sore straits. The figures of the Boer death rate show that in a population of 14,000 whites and 19,000 blacks the mortality was 60 whites and 128 blacks per 1,000. The infant death rate was 671 per 1,000 among the whites and 912 per 1,000 among the blacks. Enteric fever was prevalent. This right state of affairs in Kimberley is not have improved much, if at all, and the fighting power of the garrison must have been greatly reduced. Kimberley's bombardment by the Boers has increased, and there is imminent danger of the town falling under the very eyes of Lord Roberts. It is believed in circles close to the war office that he will move at once.

Scouts have approached within 1,000 yards of the Boer entrenchments at Magerfontein. They have found these strong and ascertained that they are used as sniping places. Naval guns are being used to secure the adjournment of the claims of Taylor and Beckham to the office of governor. It is feared of a clash as long as the republican position is maintained. Judge Taylor believes the injunction suit now pending before Judge Cantrell at Frankfort is useless as far as unsealing the main issue is concerned, because its object was to prevent Taylor from interfering with the legislature or adjournment to Louisville. He must be had, and this will probably be by a suit at law in behalf of Beckham to establish the legality of the action of the legislature in declaring him elected, and to secure possession of the office, or by a petition in equity to restrain Taylor from exercising the duties of the office of governor. PHILIPPINES.

Official Report Made to the Surgeon General of the Situation By Dr. Carmichael.

THE CONDITION IS STILL VERY BAD.

New Cases Are Being Discovered in Different Parts of Honoluli Herebefore Not Detected.

From the Time It Was First Discovered up to January 23 There Had Been 22 Cases, 41 Proving Fatal.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Under date of January 25 Surgeon D. A. Carmichael, of the marine hospital service, stationed at Honolulu, has sent to Surg. Gen. Wyman a report showing the plague situation existing there. At the time the report was written the condition was still uncertain as to whether new cases were being discovered from time to time and in parts of the city away from Chinatown. One white lady, a Mrs. Boardman, living in what was considered a healthy part of the city, was attacked on January 6 and died from the plague on the 15th of the same month. She was employed in a dry goods store and it is stated that a dead rat was found and removed from the store near her department some days before she was taken ill. It is also rumored that infection was conveyed from a pet dog which was ill and died shortly before its mistress.

Another white woman living in a previously healthy part of the city was attacked on January 15 and was removed to pest house. A summary shows that from January 13 to the 23rd inclusive there were 22 cases and 12 deaths. From December 12 to January 13 inclusive there were 22 cases and 12 deaths. The doctor briefly describes the burning of Chinatown by which over 4,500 people were made homeless and almost all of their belongings destroyed in a few hours' time. Contributions of food and clothing from the citizens at once began to be made and before nightfall nearly all had been fed and were housed under tents, awnings, etc.

Dr. Carmichael says there is an element of danger in the removal of this large number of people from the infected parts of the city. Many of them carried their clothing and personal belongings away from Chinatown but the number was so small and the necessity of guarding these people so urgent that the best was done under the circumstances in such a pressing emergency.

A number of the homeless, principally Chinese, Japanese and Hawaiians, were removed to Kawaiaha church and church yard on King street, and to the camps at Kalihi and Kakaia and others to various empty warehouses in other parts of the city.

In connection with the report a more hopeful feeling now that the greater part of Chinatown has been destroyed, and when the people are removed from infected district are properly established in suitable camps the prospects for improvement in the situation, he says, are good.

Since the date of the above report, unofficial telegraph advices from Honolulu show there has been considerable improvement in the plague situation. The situation is much improved.

SCHEME TO SAVE POSTAGE.

A Bill Sent to Congress Designed to Facilitate Transatlantic Transactions by Mail.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The postmaster general has forwarded to the post office committee of congress a draft of a bill designed to facilitate commercial transactions by mail. In a letter accompanying the bill the postmaster general says that at present many persons, in order to secure patronage and replies by mail, send to post office inspectors and correspondents prepaid cards and envelopes. Practical experience, he says, shows that only about ten per cent of these are returned, entailing a loss to the sender of 90 per cent of the postage value of the cards and envelopes so distributed.

The bill provides that arrangements may be made with private persons, firms and corporations, for the issue of their own prepaid envelopes and reply cards addressed to themselves, and for their transmission through the mails without prepayment of postage. The postmaster is to be authorized to collect the same as postage due under present conditions. A deposit will be required in advance of the reply for applying for privilege in such amount as shall in the judgment of the postmaster general seem proper.

The privileges of the registry system by the terms of the bill, shall be extended to those reply envelopes and cards, the registry fee being collected from the addressee upon delivery.
